Drinking Water Fountains

Description:

The Faculty of Psychology has two drinking-water fountains located near the center of the faculty area. These water fountains are free and could be used by anyone in the area. People who want to use the water fountain can prepare a water bottle to be filled or drink directly from the faucet at the end part of the fountain. We also maintain and clean the water fountains regularly to ensure the safety and hygiene when used. With these drinking-water fountains, all students, staff and visitors can access free and healthy water to drink.
