FMIPA UI organizes visits from high schools and vocational schools to introduce the faculty to prospective students. Additionally, through the Student Executive Board (BEM) of FMIPA UI, an event called MIPA Open House is held. The purpose of this event is to attract new students while providing an overview of the academic experience at FMIPA, including courses offered, facilities, and tuition fees.

[1.3.2] Bottom financial quintile student success

The Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences (FMIPA) offers financial aid programs or scholarships specifically for students. These scholarships provide support for thesis costs, tuition fees, and daily living expenses. It is hoped that these scholarships will help students continue their studies despite facing financial difficulties.

Additionally, there are other scholarships available through the website beasiswa.ui.ac.id, such as:

1. KIPK Scholarship (Kartu Indonesia Pintar Kuliah): A government scholarship aimed at students from low-income families who excel academically. This scholarship covers tuition and living expenses.
2. KJMU Scholarship (Kartu Jakarta Mahasiswa Unggul): A government scholarship supporting high-achieving students from DKI Jakarta. This scholarship provides assistance for educational costs and other supporting expenses.
3. Tanoto Foundation Scholarship: Awarded to high-achieving students from underprivileged families, focusing on personal development and academic achievement.
4. Djarum Foundation Scholarship: Targeted at students with high academic achievements who are also active in social activities and character development.
5. Sampoerna Foundation Scholarship: For students from middle-lower economic backgrounds who have good academic performance, with a focus on leadership.

More information regarding these scholarships can be obtained through the FMIPA Student Executive Board (BEM) and the mentioned website.
