

Evidence SDG 2.2.2

Campus Food Waste

The Faculty of Law managed food waste by collecting the canteen's organic waste and measuring it every day in our waste disposal station. This is a temporary station where all of the faculty's waste is separated before being transported by a garbage truck that will be processed at the University of Indonesia Landfill (TPS).

food waste collection at the dumpster

separating waste

waste to be transported to the landfill

